

Congratulations to the 2010 Modern Day Technology Leadership Awardee Winners

Ten Harris employees will receive the Modern Day Technology Leadership (MDTL) award at the Black Engineer of the Year Awards (BEYA) and STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) Global Competitiveness Conference in Baltimore, Maryland this month. The MDTL award recognizes the significant achievements of bright, young, up-and-coming women and men leaders who are shaping the future of engineering, science, and technology.

Congratulations to:

Hope Baker (CHQ)

Colleen Focacci (GCSD)

Reginald Holder (GCSD)

Lloyd McKenzie (GCSD)

Jacq Merrick (GCSD)

Kerley Prudhomme (GCSD)

Vashon Sims (GCSD)

Timothy Young (GCSD).

Derek Baker (HITS)

Victor Parris (RFCD)

For more than two decades, the BEYA STEM Global Competitiveness Conference has recognized top professionals and students from every part of the nation and every field of science, engineering, and technology. Each nominee, and the individual who nominated them, will attend an awards banquet on February 19th, during which the winners will be presented with their awards. Congratulations again to each of the awardees!