

Scott T. Mikuen

Scott T. Mikuen is vice president–general counsel and secretary for Harris Corporation. In this role, he oversees legal support to all Harris business operations and functional areas and is a member of the Harris Executive Committee. As corporate secretary, Mr. Mikuen also works very closely with the Board of Directors. He is also a Trustee of the Harris Foundation and a member of the Harris Political Action Committee.

Previously, Mr. Mikuen was vice president–associate general counsel and secretary with responsibilities for corporate governance, SEC compliance, finance, and merger and acquisition transactions.

Mr. Mikuen joined Harris in 1996 and has served in various positions within the Legal department, including vice president–counsel, with responsibility for Harris corporate and commercial division legal affairs, and as finance counsel.

Prior to joining Harris, he served as a partner in a Long Island, New York, law firm.

Mr. Mikuen earned a bachelor's degree with high honors in political science from Colgate University and a law degree with honors from the Harvard Law School.

He is admitted to practice in New York and Florida. Mr. Mikuen is a member of the New York and Florida Bar Associations, the American Bar Association, the American Society of Corporate Secretaries and Governance Professionals, and the Association of Corporate Counsel. Mr. Mikuen is also a member of the Melbourne Airport Authority board and a director of Club Esteem. He is actively involved in youth sports programs and plays competitive sports (having represented a Florida team in USA Hockey "Over 40" Nationals).

Harris is an international communications and information technology company serving government and commercial markets in more than 150 countries. Harris is dedicated to developing best-in-class assured communications[®] products, systems, and services.