Forward-looking statements

Statements in this presentation that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements that reflect management's current expectations, assumptions and estimates of future performance and economic conditions. Such statements are made in reliance on the safe harbor provisions of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements in this presentation include but are not limited to: earnings, revenue, adjusted free cash flow, operating margin and segment guidance for fiscal 2018; strategic priorities and tax rate, and other supplemental information for fiscal 2018; changes in guidance for fiscal 2018; potential contract opportunities and awards; the potential value and timing of contract awards; statements regarding future growth; and other statements regarding outlook or that are not historical facts. The company cautions investors that any forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results and future trends to differ materially from those matters expressed in or implied by such forward-looking statements. The company's consolidated results, future trends and forward-looking statements could be affected by many factors, risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to: the loss of the company's relationship with the U.S. Government or a change or reduction in U.S. Government funding; potential changes in U.S. Government or customer priorities and requirements (including potential deferrals of awards, terminations, reductions of expenditures, changes to respond to the priorities of Congress and the Administration, budgetary constraints, debt ceiling implications, sequestration, and cost-cutting initiatives); a security breach, through cyber attack or otherwise, or other significant disruptions of the company's IT networks and systems or those the company operates for customers; the level of returns on defined benefit plan assets and changes in interest rates; risks inherent with large long-term fixed-price contracts, particularly the ability to contain cost overruns; changes in estimates used in accounting for the company's programs; financial and government and regulatory risks relating to international sales and operations; effects of any non-compliance with laws; the company's ability to continue to develop new products that achieve market acceptance; the consequences of uncertain economic conditions and future geo-political events; strategic acquisitions and divestitures and the risks and uncertainties related thereto, including the company's ability to manage and integrate acquired businesses and realize expected benefits and the potential disruption to relationships with employees, suppliers and customers, including the U.S. Government, and to the company's business generally; performance of the company's subcontractors and suppliers; potential claims related to infringement of intellectual property rights or environmental remediation or other contingencies, litigation and legal matters and the ultimate outcome thereof; risks inherent in developing new and complex technologies and/or that may not be covered adequately by insurance or indemnity; changes in the company's effective tax rate; significant indebtedness and unfunded pension liability and potential downturns in the company's credit ratings; unforeseen environmental matters; natural disasters or other disruptions affecting the company's operations; changes in future business or other market conditions that could cause business investments and/or recorded goodwill or other long-term assets to become impaired; the company's ability to attract and retain key employees, maintain reasonable relationships with unionized employees and manage escalating costs of providing employee health care; or potential tax, indemnification and other liabilities and exposures related to Exelis' spin-off of Vectrus, Inc. and Exelis' spin-off from ITT Corporation. Further information relating to these and other factors that may impact the company's results, future trends and forward-looking statements are disclosed in the company's filings with the SEC. The forward-looking statements contained in this presentation are made as of the date of this presentation, and the company disclaims any intention or obligation, other than as imposed by law, to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
3Q18: Solid progress against strategic priorities

1. Grow revenue across all 3 segments
   - Revenue up 5% with growth in all segments
   - Orders up 27%; book-to-bill 1.2 and >1 across all segments
   - Year-over-year backlog growth of 22%

2. Drive flawless execution while maintaining margins through operational excellence
   - Delivered 21%* EPS growth, 12% excluding tax reform
   - Expanded margin 30 bps to 19.3%*
   - Continued margin expansion in CS & SIS; ES normalized post ADS-B

3. Maximize cash flow with balanced capital deployment
   - Adjusted FCF of $121M, LTM FCF of $891M
   - Returned $115M to shareholders in dividends and repurchases
   - Completed ~$200M of share repurchases YTD

*Non-GAAP EPS and operating margin exclude a change in deferred taxes offset by charges related to transitioning and exiting a commercial business and other items. For non-GAAP reconciliations reference other quarterly earnings materials and the Harris investor relations website.

Adjusted FCF (free cash flow) = operating cash flow excluding 3Q18 $300M voluntary pension contribution, less capital expenditures. Adjusted LTM FCF excludes 3Q18 $300M and 4Q17 $400M voluntary pension contributions.
